

Dear Neighbor,

Can you consider helping local students with autism this year? We'd love to have you join us as a prize donor for The Birchtree Center's 13th-annual Benefit for Learning Auction on Nov. 2nd in Eliot, Maine.

When you donate an auction prize to our nonprofit, you'll help fund therapeutic equipment, teaching technology, student transportation, and other essentials for autism programs at Birchtree, in our local public schools, and in our community. You'll help us transform the lives of children and youth with autism in New Hampshire and Maine.

If you're interested in donating an auction prize, please scan the QR code below, mail in the form on the reverse, or call me at 603-433-4192 x32.

Why invest in Birchtree's Benefit for Learning Auction?

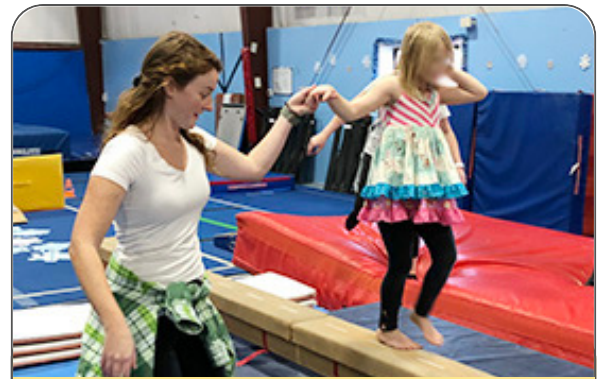

You'll reach 300+ enthusiastic shoppers—including parents, community leaders & young professionals—in NH, ME, MA & beyond. It's a fun way to launch the holiday shopping season and contribute to a great cause!

I hope you can join us!
